

As a Flight Attendant, we have many problems dealing with cell phone and pager use by passengers while on the ground. Safety briefings being the first of the problems. It stands to reason that additional allowed use would only multiply the problems in regards to safety. Please do not allow this to happen!!